

Purchase your "Little Bird" Art Cards and Posters today! All proceeds go directly to Bridge to Freedom Foundation!

DESCRIPTION: Artist Autumn Davidson, known as Autumn Rae Art, has generously donated the rights to the image of her painting, "Little Birds", to Bridge to Freedom Foundation (BTFF) after the painting was purchased by a volunteer as a gift to our Executive Director Cassandra Clifford. The heartfelt painting was then hung in her home/office where it soon became a piece of inspiration to the entire team. A supporter, writer, and survivor Chong Kim was also moved by the painting and the work of BTFF and sent us an inspiring piece she wrote for BTFF. Continually moved by the power of art and collaboration, BTFF contacted Davidson and Kim to create a project that would enable the story of empowerment and hope to be shared with our supporters, while also helping to raise much needed funds for BTFF to support survivors to lead thriving lives. We hope you too will be inspired and moved by these wonderful pieces and purchase your art cards or posters today!
